Restaurant Week Planned for Greater Cincinnati

Check out over 25 of the area's "local flavors" this March 3rd – 9th!

The Greater Cincinnati Independents invite residents and visitors to "Eat lots and Spend Little" at the tri-state's second annual Greater Cincinnati Restaurant Week.

In the tradition of Restaurant Week in cities such as New York, San Francisco, and even Dayton diners are given a unique opportunity to enjoy local dishes from all over Greater Cincinnati at a very special price with participating GCI restaurants.

The Greater Cincinnati Restaurant Week runs from Monday, March 3rd - Sunday, March 9th. To date, 30 locally owned restaurants will offer a three-course prix-fixe dinner menu for only $25.08! (Price does not include drinks, taxes or gratuities. Some restrictions may apply.)

"The way this promotion has taken off in cities across the country, proves that this can be quite successful at getting people to try restaurants and explore neighborhoods they might not have gone to otherwise," said GCI Vice President, Drew Hester. "We have a great list of participants to start this off and we're confident that list will continue to grow."

The current list of Restaurant Week participants at press time includes: Andy's Mediterranean Grille, Behle Street Café, Bella Luna, Brown Dog Café, Chalk Food + Wine, China Gourmet, Daveed's at 934, deSha's American Tavern & Grille, Dilly Deli Wines and Gourmet, Greenup Café, Holy Grail Tavern & Grille, Hugo, Jag's Steak & Seafood, Jimmy D's Steakhouse, Kona Bistro, Mesh, Mike & Jimmy's Chophouse Grille, Molly Malone's Irish Pub, Nicholson's, O'Bryon's Irish Pub, Polo Grille, Pompilios, Primavista, The Pub at Crestview Hills, The Pub at Rookwood Mews, The Vineyard Café, Red, Tink's Café, Universal Grille & Washington Platform.
